

A. Target-local observations history lives around points, not in pose tokens selected camera centers only

B. Directional memory

store a distribution over directions $$\sum_o w_o d_o d_o^\top$$ or low-order $Y_{\ell m}$ coefficients when ablated

C. Candidate query

read novelty from the proposed view added to candidate row, not a new observation

